

Have you ever thought about a career in law?

Apply now for the DiscoverLaw.org Prelaw Undergraduate Scholars Program at UT Austin and Huston-Tillotson

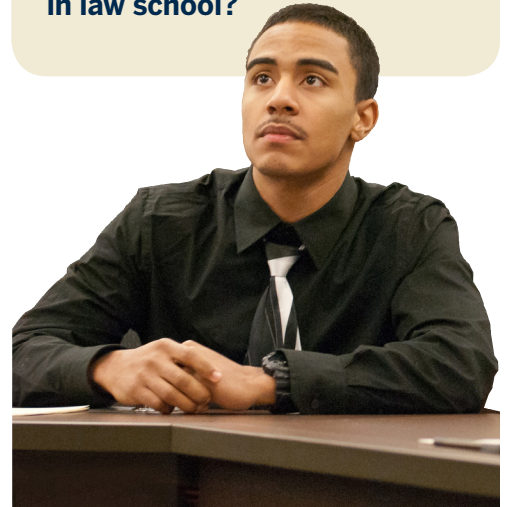

This summer, the Longhorn Center for Academic Excellence will offer the DiscoverLaw.org Prelaw Undergraduate Scholars (PLUS) program to rising sophomores and juniors at the University of Texas and Huston-Tillotson University. The five-week program will help students learn more about the legal profession and what is needed to earn a law degree. DiscoverLaw.org PLUS focuses on the skills required to get into and succeed in law school and successfully pursue a range of careers in the legal field. The program is FREE for students selected to participate, and is funded by a grant from the Law School Admission Council (LSAC).

The DiscoverLaw.org summer session begins July 9, 2017. Interested students should contact the Longhorn Center for Academic Excellence at The University of Texas at Austin for application information, including deadlines and selection criteria.

The DiscoverLaw.org Prelaw Undergraduate Scholars (PLUS) Program is a campaign of the Law School Admission Council.

- What can you do with a law degree?
- How long does it take to get a law degree?
- What is law school like?
- Are there different fields of law?
- Are there majors or specialties in law school?

APPLICATION DEADLINE:
April 19, 2017
