THE AFRICAN AMERICAN MALE RESEARCH INITIATIVE AT THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT AUSTIN PRESENTS:

THE BLACK STUDENT-ATHLETE SUMMIT

THE POWER OF RACE IN COLLEGE ATHLETICS

January 17-19, 2018
AT&T Executive Education and Conference Center
Austin, Texas

The African American Male Research Initiative and the Division of Diversity and Community Engagement at The University of Texas at Austin invite you to the fourth annual Black Student-Athlete Summit.

The Summit includes candid discussions on the numerous and complex issues surround the Black student-athlete. Scholars, coaches, conference commissioners, athletic directors, academic advisors, student affairs professionals, present and former student-athletes, journalists and others are invited. Past Summit themes have included “Success Both on and Off the Field” and “The Black Student-Athlete in the Age of Black Lives Matter.”

This is a “must attend” event for anyone involved in the life of the Black student-athlete. The three-day gathering is the most comprehensive national gathering on the issues related to the Black experience within college athletics.
