The working pre-conference session will explore the various factors impacting student-athlete mental health, the manifestation of these factors, and how poor mental health may impact academics, athletic performance, and everything in between.

Attendees will be provided case scenarios to ground discussions on athletics policies, practices with student-athletes, and other factors that impact the support student-athletes receive.

For more information diversity.utexas.edu/blackstudentathletesummit blackstudentathlete@austin.utexas.edu