ITS Help Desk
Flawn Academic Center (FAC), First Floor  •  (512) 475-9400
https://www.utexas.edu/its/helpdesk/index.php

Legal Services for Students
Office of the Dean of Students
Student Services Building (SSB), Room 3.410
100 W. Dean Keeton St.  •  (512) 471-7796
http://deanofstudents.utexas.edu/lss/

Student Emergency Services
The Student Emergency Services staff in the Office of the Dean of Students works with campus and community organizations to provide a number of services to assist students and, in some cases, their families and friends during an emergency or crisis situation. These services may include provision of limited emergency funds, assistance with academic issues, outreach and advocacy for students, and coordination with other relevant UT offices.

Office of the Dean of Students
Student Services Building (SSB), Room 4.104
100 W. Dean Keeton St.  •  (512) 471-5017
http://deanofstudents.utexas.edu/emergency/

University Police Department
2201 Robert Dedman Dr. (east of the stadium)  •  (512) 471-4441, Emergency phone: 911

Student Ombuds Services
Student Services Building (SSB), Room G1.404  •  100 W. Dean Keeton St.
Hours: 9:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.  •  (512) 471-3825  •  ombuds@uts.cc.utexas.edu

For questions, comments, or concerns, please contact the Gender and Sexuality Center at (512) 232-1831 or gsc@austin.utexas.edu.
On Campus

Gender and Sexuality Center (GSC)
Serving Women and LGBTQA Communities

The Gender and Sexuality Center (GSC) provides opportunities for all members of the UT Austin community to explore, organize, and promote learning around issues of gender and sexuality. The center also facilitates a greater responsiveness to the needs of women and the LGBTQA communities through education, outreach and advocacy. Join us every Friday at 1 p.m. for Feminist Friday where we discuss all things feminist, from street harassment to feminist organizing while enjoying snacks and coffee.

Student Activity Center (SAC), Room 2.112
2201 Speedway
(512) 232-1831
EMAIL: gsc@austin.utexas.edu  FACEBOOK: www.facebook.com/UTGSC
TWITTER: GSCatUT  INSTAGRAM: GSCatUT  TUMBLR: utgsc.tumblr.com
www.utgsc.org

Health Promotion Resource Center

The UHS Health Promotion Resource Center helps UT students get and stay healthy. Specifically, they can address nutrition, drug, and alcohol, and sexual health issues.

Student Services Building (SSB), First Floor
100 W. Dean Keeton St.
(512) 475-8252
healthyhorns.utexas.edu/education.html

Multicultural Engagement Center (MEC)

The Multicultural Engagement Center (MEC) provides diverse educational opportunities and support services for students.

The MEC houses the following student agencies:

• Afrikan American Affairs
• Asian Desi Pacific Islander American Collective
• Latina/o Community Affairs
• Native American and Indigenous Collective
• Queer People of Color and Allies
• Students for Equity and Diversity

Student Activity Center (SAC), Room 1.104
2201 Speedway
(512) 232-2958
www.utmec.org

Musings of a #lonelyfeminist

A zine made by the Feminist Action Project at UT. Anyone can submit feminist essays, poems, art projects, or general musings via email:

feministactionproject@gmail.com

Texas Journal of Women and the Law (TJWL)

TJWL is an innovative, student-edited journal dedicated to publishing legal scholarship that explores the intersection of culture, race, and socio-economics with gender. We celebrate the advances made by advocates and seek to enhance the relationship between theoretical and practical perspectives by promoting discourse on gender and the law issues.

http://www.utexas.edu/law/journals/tjwl/

Other General Services

While these services are not specifically geared towards women, they are important campus resources that you might find useful at some point during your time at UT.

Counseling and Mental Health Center (CMHC)

The UT Counseling and Mental Health Center (CMHC) offers a variety of free and confidential counseling groups and classes that might be useful to female identified students on campus. Women specific groups vary each semester. Please check the CMHC Web site for current offerings. You can call (512) 471-3515 to talk to a counselor and make sure the group is right for you.

Some examples of groups offered through the CMHC:

• Reclaiming Our Voices Group
• Lesbian/Bisexual Women’s Group

While these groups focus on issues that impact many women on campus, the CMHC offers a variety of other groups that might interest you such as tackling test anxiety, romantic relationships group, grief and loss group, and several more. Visit their Web sites for more information.

Student Services Building (SSB), 5th Floor
1 University Station, A3500
Austin, TX 78712  •  (512) 471-3515
http://www.cmhc.utexas.edu/groups.html
Women in Engineering (WEP)
The Women in Engineering Program (WEP) helps women in the Cockrell School get connected, develop as engineering leaders, and graduate with skills for life. WEP strives to: recruit and retain female engineering students; increase the percentage of female engineering graduates, and provide a support structure that encourages the success of women in the Cockrell School of Engineering.

Ernest Cockrell Jr. Hall (ECJ), Room 2.108
1 University Station, C2100
Austin, TX 78712
(512) 471-5650   wep@engr.utexas.edu
http://www.engr.utexas.edu/wep

Student Activities and Leadership Development (SALD)
For more information on student and academic organizations go to:

In the Community
Women’s Community Center of Central Texas
The Women’s Community Center of Central Texas is a new organization that will focus on providing resources, referrals, and education to women and girls in central Texas.

1704 San Antonio St. Austin, TX 78701
(512) 284-9221   info@womenscommunityctx.org
http://womenscommunityctx.org/
https://www.facebook.com/WomensCommunityCenterCTX
https://twitter.com/womenctx

Publications
Intersections: Women and Gender Studies in Review
Intersections: Women’s and Gender Studies in Review across Disciplines is an interdisciplinary graduate student publication welcoming work from graduate students and professors at The University of Texas at Austin. We are committed to promoting the interdisciplinary research of women’s and gender issues and are affiliated with the Center for Women’s and Gender Studies.

www.intersectionsjournal.com

Rape Aggression Defense (RAD) System
The Rape Aggression Defense (RAD) System is dedicated to teaching women defensive concepts and techniques against various types of assault, by utilizing easy, effective and proven self-defense tactics. Our system of realistic defense will provide a woman with the knowledge to make an educated decision about resistance.

University of Texas Police Department
2201 Robert Dedman Dr. (east of the stadium)
(512) 471-4441, Emergency phone: 911
www.utexas.edu/police/rad/

SURE Walk
SURE Walk student volunteers accompany students, faculty, and staff on walks to and from campus at night. Order a SURE Walk by phone or email and two volunteers (one female, one male) ensure that everyone arrives to their destination safely.

Perry-Castañeda Library (PCL), between guard desk and Java City
Monday–Thursday, 10 p.m. – 2 a.m.
(512) 232-9255
Please call or submit an online order to: orderasurewalk@gmail.com
http://utsg.org/projects/sure-walk/

University Health Services Women’s Health Clinic
In the UHS Women’s Health Clinic, nurse practitioners certified in women’s or family healthcare, registered nurses, and a consulting gynecologist provide care by appointment.

Student Services Building (SSB), Third Floor
100 W. Dean Keeton St.
(512) 471-4955
healthyhorns.utexas.edu/womenshealth.html

Voices Against Violence (VAV)
CMHC Voices Against Violence (VAV) is a program of the Counseling and Mental Health Center at The University of Texas at Austin. VAV addresses issues of dating/relationship violence, sexual violence, and stalking.

Student Services Building (SSB), Ground Floor, Powerhouse
100 W. Dean Keeton St.
(512) 471-3515
cmhc.utexas.edu/vav.html
Academic Organizations

Center for Asian American Studies (CAAS)
Founded in 2000, the Center for Asian American Studies (CAAS) at The University of Texas at Austin is an interdisciplinary academic program that educates students, faculty, administrators and staff and broadens their awareness about Asian American issues.

Burdine Hall (BUR), Room 480
1 University Station, A2200
Austin, TX 78712  •  (512) 232-6427
http://www.utexas.edu/cola/centers/aas/

Center for Mexican American Studies (CMAS)
The mission of CMAS is to serve Texas and the nation as a leader in the intellectual development of Mexican American Studies. The establishment of CMAS represents an institutional recognition of the importance of the Mexican American people in the history, culture, and society of the United States.

West Mall Office Building (WMB), Room 5.102
1 University Station, F9200
Austin, TX 78712  •  (512) 471-4557  •  Fax (512) 471-9639
http://www.utexas.edu/cola/centers/cmas/

Center for Women’s and Gender Studies (CWGS)
The mission of the Center for Women’s and Gender Studies (CWGS) is to promote learning and research about women, gender and society. We create intellectual and public communities committed to exploring women’s experiences and addressing the challenges faced by women, men, and families within Texas, the nation, and around the globe.

Burdine Hall (BUR), Room 536
2505 University Avenue, A4900
Austin, TX 78712  •  (512) 471-5765
http://www.utexas.edu/cola/centers/cwgs/

Embrey Women’s Human Rights Initiative
The Embrey Women’s Human Rights Initiative at the UT Center for Women’s and Gender Studies sustains research, teaching, and activism as human rights strategies in resistance to oppressions along narrative borders of ability, class, ethnicity, gender, indigeneity, nationality, and sexuality. Participate in training in interdisciplinary human rights practices including arts, design, education, law, narrative, and policy through monthly discussions about research and teaching, new courses taught by innovative faculty, planning for an international conference in 2012, and collaborations with community organizations working on women, gender, and human rights advocacy. For more information, contact information: Kristen Hogan: hogank@mail.utexas.edu

INSPIRE: Empowering Texas Women Leaders (formerly TULIP)
The INSPIRE program is a leadership program for women sponsored by the Center for Women’s and Gender Studies at The University of Texas at Austin. It has been created specifically to empower undergraduate women to re-envision and enact what leadership means in a global society.

The program promotes an understanding of cultural diversity, encourages the participants to become global citizens, and to address international challenges in partnerships with women from other countries. The program inspires and supports students in the classroom, on campus, and in community leadership roles. Students will develop skills applicable to diverse social settings: critical thinking, public presentation, group motivation, and negotiation. We envision that the women who go through the program will create a world that opens up opportunities to create change in women’s lives in the workplace, higher education and in every aspect of their lives.

For more information, contact:
Center for Women’s and Gender Studies
Burdine Hall (BUR), Room 536
(512) 471-5765
wstudies@uts.cc.utexas.edu
http://www.utexas.edu/cola/centers/cwgs/Leadership/INSPIREEmpoweringTexasWomenLeaders.php

John L. Warfield Center for African and African American Studies (WLAAAS)
The Warfield Center seeks to establish an activist intellectual, artistic, and political community that considers the processes of race, gender, sexuality, culture, and power operating within and upon Black communities. In collaboration with other university departments, centers, and schools, the center seeks to establish an activist intellectual community that considers the processes of race, gender, culture, and power operating within and upon Black communities.

Beauford H. Jester Center (JES), A232A
1 University Station, D7200
Austin, TX 78712
(512) 471-1784
http://www.utexas.edu/cola/centers/caaas/
Academic Organizations

Center for Asian American Studies (CAAS)

Founded in 2000, the Center for Asian American Studies (CAAS) at The University of Texas at Austin is an interdisciplinary academic program that educates students, faculty, administrators and staff and broadens their awareness about Asian American issues.

Burdine Hall (BUR), Room 480
1 University Station, A2200
Austin, TX 78712  •  (512) 232-6427
http://www.utexas.edu/cola/centers/aas/

Center for Mexican American Studies (CMAS)

The mission of CMAS is to serve Texas and the nation as a leader in the intellectual development of Mexican American Studies. The establishment of CMAS represents an institutional recognition of the importance of the Mexican American people in the history, culture, and society of the United States.

West Mall Office Building (WMB), Room 5.102
1 University Station, F9200
Austin, TX 78712  •  (512) 471-4557  •  Fax (512) 471-9639
http://www.utexas.edu/cola/centers/cmas/

Center for Women’s and Gender Studies (CWGS)

The mission of the Center for Women’s and Gender Studies (CWGS) is to promote learning and research about women, gender and society. We create intellectual and public communities committed to exploring women’s experiences and addressing the challenges faced by women, men, and families within Texas, the nation, and around the globe.

Burdine Hall (BUR), Room 536
2505 University Avenue, A4900
Austin, TX 78712  •  (512) 471-5765
http://www.utexas.edu/cola/centers/cwgs/

Embrey Women’s Human Rights Initiative

The Embrey Women’s Human Rights Initiative at the UT Center for Women’s and Gender Studies sustains research, teaching, and activism as human rights strategies in resistance to oppressions along narrative borders of ability, class, ethnicity, gender, indigeneity, nationality, and sexuality. Participate in training in interdisciplinary human rights practices including arts, design, education, law, narrative, and policy through monthly discussions about research and teaching, new courses taught by innovative faculty, planning for an international conference in 2012, and collaborations with community organizations working on women, gender, and human rights advocacy. For more information, contact information: Kristen Hogan: hogank@mail.utexas.edu

INSPIRE: Empowering Texas Women Leaders (formerly TULIP)

The INSPIRE program is a leadership program for women sponsored by the Center for Women’s and Gender Studies at The University of Texas at Austin. It has been created specifically to empower undergraduate women to re-envision and enact what leadership means in a global society.

The program promotes an understanding of cultural diversity, encourages the participants to become global citizens, and to address international challenges in partnerships with women from other countries. The program inspires and supports students in the classroom, on campus, and in community leadership roles. Students will develop skills applicable to diverse social settings: critical thinking, public presentation, group motivation, and negotiation. We envision that the women who go through the program will create a world that opens up opportunities to create change in women’s lives in the workplace, higher education and in every aspect of their lives.

For more information, contact:
Center for Women’s and Gender Studies
Burdine Hall (BUR), Room 536
(512) 471-5765
wstudies@uts.cc.utexas.edu
http://www.utexas.edu/cola/centers/cwgs/Leadership/INSPIREEmpoweringTexasWomenLeaders.php

John L. Warfield Center for African and African American Studies (WLAAAS)

The Warfield Center seeks to establish an activist intellectual, artistic, and political community that considers the processes of race, gender, sexuality, culture, and power operating within and upon Black communities. In collaboration with other university departments, centers, and schools, the center seeks to establish an activist intellectual community that considers the processes of race, gender, culture, and power operating within and upon Black communities.

Beauford H. Jester Center (JES), A232A
1 University Station, D7200
Austin, TX 78712
(512) 471-1784
http://www.utexas.edu/cola/centers/caaas/
Women in Engineering (WEP)
The Women in Engineering Program (WEP) helps women in the Cockrell School get connected, develop as engineering leaders, and graduate with skills for life. WEP strives to: recruit and retain female engineering students; increase the percentage of female engineering graduates, and provide a support structure that encourages the success of women in the Cockrell School of Engineering.

Ernest Cockrell Jr. Hall (ECJ), Room 2.108
1 University Station, C2100
Austin, TX 78712
(512) 471-5650  wep@engr.utexas.edu
http://www.engr.utexas.edu/wep

Student Activities and Leadership Development (SALD)
For more information on student and academic organizations go to:

In the Community
Women's Community Center of Central Texas
The Women's Community Center of Central Texas is a new organization that will focus on providing resources, referrals, and education to women and girls in central Texas.

1704 San Antonio St. Austin, TX 78701
(512) 284-9221  info@womenscommunityctx.org
http://womenscommunityctx.org/
https://www.facebook.com/WomensCommunityCenterCTX
https://twitter.com/womensctx

Publications
Intersections: Women and Gender Studies in Review
Intersections: Women’s and Gender Studies in Review across Disciplines is an interdisciplinary graduate student publication welcoming work from graduate students and professors at The University of Texas at Austin. We are committed to promoting the interdisciplinary research of women’s and gender issues and are affiliated with the Center for Women’s and Gender Studies.

www.intersectionsjournal.com

Rape Aggression Defense (RAD) System
The Rape Aggression Defense (RAD) System is dedicated to teaching women defensive concepts and techniques against various types of assault, by utilizing easy, effective and proven self-defense tactics. Our system of realistic defense will provide a woman with the knowledge to make an educated decision about resistance.

University of Texas Police Department
2201 Robert Dedman Dr. (east of the stadium)
(512) 471-4441, Emergency phone: 911
www.utexas.edu/police/rad/

SURE Walk
SURE Walk student volunteers accompany students, faculty, and staff on walks to and from campus at night. Order a SURE Walk by phone or email and two volunteers (one female, one male) ensure that everyone arrives to their destination safely.

Perry-Castañeda Library (PCL), between guard desk and Java City
Monday–Thursday, 10 p.m. – 2 a.m.
(512) 232-9255
Please call or submit an online order to: orderasurewalk@gmail.com
http://utsg.org/projects/sure-walk/

University Health Services Women’s Health Clinic
In the UHS Women’s Health Clinic, nurse practitioners certified in women’s or family healthcare, registered nurses, and a consulting gynecologist provide care by appointment.

Student Services Building (SSB), Third Floor
100 W. Dean Keeton St.
(512) 471-4955
healthyhorns.utexas.edu/womenshealth.html

Voices Against Violence (VAV)
CMHC Voices Against Violence (VAV) is a program of the Counseling and Mental Health Center at The University of Texas at Austin. VAV addresses issues of dating/relationship violence, sexual violence, and stalking.

Student Services Building (SSB), Ground Floor, Powerhouse
100 W. Dean Keeton St.
(512) 471-3515
cmhc.utexas.edu/vav.html
On Campus

Gender and Sexuality Center (GSC)
Serving Women and LGBTQA Communities

The Gender and Sexuality Center (GSC) provides opportunities for all members of the UT Austin community to explore, organize, and promote learning around issues of gender and sexuality. The center also facilitates a greater responsiveness to the needs of women and the LGBTQA communities through education, outreach and advocacy. Join us every Friday at 1 p.m. for Feminist Friday where we discuss all things feminist, from street harassment to feminist organizing while enjoying snacks and coffee.

Student Activity Center (SAC), Room 2.112
2201 Speedway
(512) 232-1831
EMAIL: gsc@austin.utexas.edu  FACEBOOK: www.facebook.com/UTGSC
TWITTER: GSCatUT  INSTAGRAM: GSCatUT  TUMBLR: utgsc.tumblr.com
www.utgsc.org

Health Promotion Resource Center

The UHS Health Promotion Resource Center helps UT students get and stay healthy. Specifically, they can address nutrition, drug, and alcohol, and sexual health issues.

Student Services Building (SSB), First Floor
100 W. Dean Keeton St.
(512) 475-8252
healthyhorns.utexas.edu/education.html

Multicultural Engagement Center (MEC)

The Multicultural Engagement Center (MEC) provides diverse educational opportunities and support services for students.

The MEC houses the following student agencies:

• Afrikan American Affairs
• Asian Desi Pacific Islander American Collective
• Latina/o Community Affairs
• Native American and Indigenous Collective
• Queer People of Color and Allies
• Students for Equity and Diversity

Student Activity Center (SAC), Room 1.104
2201 Speedway
(512) 232-2958
www.utmec.org

Musings of a #lonelyfeminist

A zine made by the Feminist Action Project at UT. Anyone can submit feminist essays, poems, art projects, or general musings via email:

feministactionproject@gmail.com

Texas Journal of Women and the Law (TJWL)

TJWL is an innovative, student-edited journal dedicated to publishing legal scholarship that explores the intersection of culture, race, and socio-economics with gender. We celebrate the advances made by advocates and seek to enhance the relationship between theoretical and practical perspectives by promoting discourse on gender and the law issues.

http://www.utexas.edu/law/journals/tjwl/

Other General Services

While these services are not specifically geared towards women, they are important campus resources that you might find useful at some point during your time at UT.

Counseling and Mental Health Center (CMHC)

The UT Counseling and Mental Health Center (CMHC) offers a variety of free and confidential counseling groups and classes that might be useful to female identified students on campus. Women specific groups vary each semester. Please check the CMHC Web site for current offerings. You can call (512) 471-3515 to talk to a counselor and make sure the group is right for you.

Some examples of groups offered through the CMHC:

• Reclaiming Our Voices Group
• Lesbian/Bisexual Women’s Group

While these groups focus on issues that impact many women on campus, the CMHC offers a variety of other groups that might interest you such as tackling test anxiety, romantic relationships group, grief and loss group, and several more. Visit their Web sites for more information.

Student Services Building (SSB), 5th Floor
1 University Station, A3500
Austin, TX 78712 • (512) 471-3515
http://www.cmhc.utexas.edu/groups.html
ITS Help Desk
Flawn Academic Center (FAC), First Floor • (512) 475-9400
https://www.utexas.edu/its/helpdesk/index.php

Legal Services for Students
Office of the Dean of Students
Student Services Building (SSB), Room 3.410
100 W. Dean Keeton St. • (512) 471-7796
http://deanofstudents.utexas.edu/lss/

Student Emergency Services
The Student Emergency Services staff in the Office of the Dean of Students works with campus and community organizations to provide a number of services to assist students and, in some cases, their families and friends during an emergency or crisis situation. These services may include provision of limited emergency funds, assistance with academic issues, outreach and advocacy for students, and coordination with other relevant UT offices.

Office of the Dean of Students
Student Services Building (SSB), Room 4.104
100 W. Dean Keeton St. • (512) 471-5017
http://deanofstudents.utexas.edu/emergency/

University Police Department
2201 Robert Dedman Dr. (east of the stadium) • (512) 471-4441, Emergency phone: 911

Student Ombuds Services
Student Services Building (SSB), Room G1.404 • 100 W. Dean Keeton St.
Hours: 9:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. • (512) 471-3825 • ombuds@uts.cc.utexas.edu

For questions, comments, or concerns, please contact the Gender and Sexuality Center at (512) 232-1831 or gsc@austin.utexas.edu.