MAYMESTER
PUEBLA, MEXICO
LATINX IDENTITIES ACROSS THE AMERICAS
Prof. Victor Saenz and Prof. Emmet Campos

ABOUT THE PROGRAM
This interdisciplinary course introduces students to emergent research on Latinx males in K12 and higher education focused on the topic of masculinity as it is theorized and practiced in the US and Mexico. Great for students seeking: Coursework surrounding issues of gender and masculinity, Mexican American history and immigration, anthropology, history and sociology.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: NOV. 15, 2019

COURSE NAMES/NUMBERS
L A 325 / MAS 374 / ALD 379 - Latinx Identities Across the Americas

INFORMATION SESSIONS
9/18/2019, 5:30 PM, SZB 286
10/14/2019, 4:00 PM, PAR 204
11/5/2019, 12:30 PM, SZB 278